Rules of Decorum

1st We believe it is duty for the members of this Church to fill there seats at meeting & be Business &c

2 When the Church is ready to enter on Business first to attend to the reffearances then to any matter of grievance that is ripe to come before the Church, and then to any that duty calls our attention too.

3rd When any members has spoken to a subject before the Church one speaking after is not to reflect on the former Speaker nor to strike at there failings (for such conduct would be contrary to spirit of the gospel) and that no members are to speak to subject more then three times with out leave of the moderator

4th While the Church is engaged in Business there is to be due attention paid by all the members present and no wandering at such times each member are to hold there Seat and not to with draw with out leave of the moderator

5 And when any question put to the Church each member is to vote or give there reason, and every member to Recollect things are not to know his father in giving verdict

6th In matters of private dealing the 18th chapter of Matthew ought to be strictly attended to when one member grieves with the grieved member is not to tell his grievance to any other person until they go to the offender and try in the spirit of meekness to gain them, and if they do gain them never tell it to any person but let it die there but if they cannot gain them take one or two members with them such as they think will be most likely to gain them and if they cannot gain them tell it to the Church, and let it be remembered the intent of dealing with members is to reclaim and not to exclude yet can be cleared

6th In case of publick grievance tenderness and faithfullness ought to be us'd in the spirit of meekness allways aiming to gain and not to exclude our brother considering our selves lest we also be tempted and let it be known that publick grievances ought to have publick confession

7th In case of an evil report about a member, we ought to take the most prudent steps to inform our selves as to the truth of it and if it appears duty to lay it before the Church, and they to act as the nature of the case may require:—

8th As the Church of Christ is compared to City set upon a hill giving light to every spectator we conceive it to be our duty to let our light so shine before men, that they seeing our good works may glorify our father which is in heaven, it is our duty to speak evil of no person and treat those that are opposed to religion with so much tenderness and respect (tho but not to countenance them) as to give full proof that there is something in us more than nature produces, we are to be exceeding ly cautious not to speak evil of our brother allways remembering that we are children of one father and are to ing hope to live together, and remember the caution given by Joseph to his brethren see that ye fall not out by the way little children love one another, we know that we have passed from death unto life because we love the Brethren

9th Any member moving out of the bounds of this Church without applying for a letter of dismission (when in their power) shall be considered as excluded

10th No member shall be received to the fellowship of this Church except by an unanimous Vote

Articles of Faith

1st We believe in one only true and living God and that there is a Trinity of persons in the Godhead, the Father, Son and Holy Ghost, and yet that there are not three Gods, but one God.

2ly We believe that the scriptures of the old and new Testaments are the word of God and the only rule of faith and practice

3ly We believe in the fall of Adam and that by his Transgression all his posterity were made sinners, we believe in the corruption of human nature and the impotency of man to recover himself by his own free will or ability.

4ly We believe that sinners are justified in the sight of God only by the righteousness of Christ imputed & not inherent to them, and that good works are the fruit of faith and follow after justification, and only justify us in the sight of men and angels, and are evidences of our gracious state.

5ly We believe that the saints shall persevere in grace and not one of them shall finally be lost

6ly We believe that there will be a resurrection of the dead and a general or universal judgment and that the happiness of the righteous and the punishment of the wicked will be eternal

7ly We believe that the visible Church of Christ is a congregation of faithful persons who have obtained fellowship with each other and have given themselves up to the Lord and to one another having agreed to keep up a godly discipline according to the rules of the Gospel

VL

8ly We believe that Jesus Christ is the great Head of the Church and that the government thereof is with the body. ———

9ly We believe that water Baptism and the Lords supper are ordinances of the Lord. and to be continued by his Church till his second coming

10ly We believe that true believers are the only subjects of baptism and that dipping is the only mode. ———

11ly We believe that none but regularly baptised Church members have aright to commune at the Lords table
